

Headquarters
Civil Air Patrol New York Wing
United States Air Force Auxiliary
817 Stewart Avenue (Rear)
Garden City, NY 11530-4802

8 August 2003

MEMORANDUM FOR: MISSION PILOTS/MP TRAINEES & CHECK PILOTS.

FROM: Project Officer: LTC Roland (Rollie) Zavada, CAP, NYW/DOV
21 Cottonwood Lane, Pittsford, NY 14534-3407 (585) 248-2162 Email: zavadarc@netacc.net

SUBJECT: Final Meeting Notice - National Mountain Fury Course

When/Where/Date: Sunday, 17 August 2003 at Schenectady Co. Airport (SCH).
Classroom will be in the Empire State Aerosciences Museum 518-377-2191 located at 250 Rudy Chase Dr., Glenville, NY 12302, which is at Schenectady Co. Airport adjacent to Fortune Air (518) 375-7815.

Time:

Sign-in 0830 - Coffee - Course starts 0915. Classroom portion will conclude about 1530-1600hrs.

Attendance/Course Materials: Pre-registration Required – for Mission Pilots and Mission Pilot Trainees attending Mountain Fury for the first time who will receive full National CAP course handbooks. All mission pilots are encouraged to have/obtain (and read) Sparky's latest "Enhanced" Mountain flying Bible. (Copies will be available)

Those who attended the Mountain Fury Course in June 2000 are encouraged to monitor the course as a refresher, and no pre registration is required. (Bring your previous supplied course materials, as there have been no changes.)

Gp DOs and aircrew are welcome/encouraged to monitor the course and no pre registration is required. (A course outline only will be provided which is sufficient for a monitoring role.)

Mr. Sparky Imeson (CFI & author) was a significant civilian contributor to the CAP Mountain Fury course. ■ shall have about 20-copies of his new-enhanced "Mountain Flying Bible" available at a CAP discount price.

Flight Portion/Mountain Search:

Mountain Search Training for first-time attendees will be given following the classroom portion of Mountain Fury Course (about 2.5 hours per two applicants with a designated instructor/check pilot). The flight portion may be accomplished up to 90 days following the classroom presentation. (Note: a CAPF 91 Flight check fulfills the requirements for refresher trainees).

Uniform: Any CAP attire per CAPR 39-1. (Golf shirt and gray slacks/flight suit - OK)

Cost: Bring your own Notebook. National Course Materials will be provided to first time Mountain Fury attendees: Expect $7-$10 charge for Breaks and "On-Site" Lunch.

Accommodations:

Days Inn*; 167 Nott Terrace, Schenectady, NY 12307 (518) 370-3297

Ramada Inn*; 450 Nott Terrace, Schenectady, NY 12308 (518) 370-7151

(*Request Military Rates: about $55-$60/night -)

Holiday Inn; 100 Nott Terrace, Schenectady, NY 12307 (518) 393-4141

Flight Transport/Training: Fully funded - FRO# - A7, Mission Number (TR-03-NY-pending (budget problems make this a last minute addition – check NY Info Net email)

Driving Directions:

From the South and East:

- NYS Thruway Exit 25
- West on I-890 to Exit 4C – Washington Avenue then.....

From the West:

- NYS Thruway Exit 25
- East on I-890 to Exit 4B – Washington Avenue then.....

.....From Washington Avenue:

- Turn left on Route 5 – over the Western Gateway Bridge to Scotia
- Proceed to Route 50 – Turn Right
- Go North on Route 50 – past Airport Road to Socha Plaza Traffic Light
- Turn right at Museum sign.

Weather: The classroom theory portion will be conducted "rain-or-shine" and the mountain search flight check rides will be arranged with a NYW designated Check/Instructor Pilots within 90 days following the course.

Course Assistant Project Officers: Captains Tim Holteen and Bob Ellwood with MEG Personnel are kindly assisting in the logistics and arrangements. LTC Ronald Volungus will assist me in the organization and presentation of the course.

Questions?? Call (585) 248-2162 or email <zavadar@netacc.net>

LTC ROLAND J. ZAVADA, CAP NYW/DOV

cc: CC
DO
DOS
CAP USAF LO